1. The General Assembly of Partners (G.A.)
2. The Board of Directors (BoD.)

Partner Pinelopi Theodorakakou, resident of Athens, 27 Myllerou Street, born in Athens in 1981, ID AP541249, VAT:115741508, is appointed as the company's administrator

Article 8. The General Assembly of the Partners

The General Assembly is the supreme body of the company and is composed of the present contracting parties - partners.

The Meeting of the partners shall meet at the registered office of the company or anywhere else in Greece and abroad, either spontaneously or at the invitation of one of them.

In the case of an extraordinary meeting, a quorum of all the partners is required for the meeting to be valid.

If the meeting is convened by invitation, the invitation must be in writing and must be communicated to all partners at least 5 days before the date of the meeting and must specify the items on the agenda. As regards the notification of the invitation, it is sufficient to send it by email.

Decisions shall be taken by absolute majority.

Exceptionally, a unanimous decision of the Partners will be required in the following cases:

- a) for the signature of contracts with a financial scope exceeding twenty thousand (20,000.00) euros.
- b) for the withdrawal or transfer of amounts exceeding twenty thousand (20,000.00) euros from the company's bank accounts.
- c) for the issue, acceptance and endorsement of checks with a nominal value of more than twenty thousand (20,000.00) euros.

(d) for the provision of security over movable property.

The Shareholders' Meeting is the only one competent to decide on any amendment of the Articles of Association, on the dissolution of the company, on the increase of the company's capital, on the discharge of the members of the Board of Directors from any liability and on any matter that does not fall within the competence of the Board of Directors. The Assembly of Partners may dismiss the Board of Directors either in whole or in part. It also elects the replacement of a Board member who has resigned in any way.

Minutes shall be kept for the decisions taken, which shall then be signed and entered in the relevant Book of Minutes of the General Assembly.

Article 9. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors implements the decisions of the General Assembly of partners, informs and recommends to the General Assembly and manages the company.

The Board of Directors is elected by the General Assembly of the Partners and consists of five (5) members, with a three-year term of office.

The elected members of the Board of Directors within ten (10) days of their election, shall meet in a special meeting, spontaneously or at the invitation of the eldest of the elected members, and shall be constituted as a body and elect the President.

The Board of Directors shall hold extraordinary meetings whenever necessary, convened by its President. The Board of Directors is in quorum and meets validly when at least three (3) members are present or represented. Board members may only be represented by another member of the Board, only with written authorization.

Decisions of the Board of Directors shall be taken by a majority of the members present or represented, except for matters where the Articles of Association provide for a qualified majority.

The Board of Directors decides on any matter within the corporate purpose, which does not belong to the exclusive competence of the General Assembly.

Each member of the Board of Directors of the company has an obligation to contribute to the company's objectives and interests and to obey its decisions.

The members of the Board of Directors are not remunerated for their work, but they may receive compensation for specific work for the company, the amount of the remuneration-compensation is determined by the General Assembly, as well as for the collection of all expenses (travel or other expenses and daily allowance for their travel) incurred for company purposes, determined by decision of the Board of Directors.

Article 10. Chairperson of the Board of Directors

The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is elected by open ballot and simple majority for a three-year term of office by the new Board of Directors, elected by the General Assembly of the partners, as defined above.

The Chairperson of the Board of Directors elected in this way will represent the company before all authorities and all third parties and will bind the company by his/her signature.

In the event that the Chairperson authorizes a third party to perform legal or material acts or affairs within the scope of the company's purpose, such authorization must be given in writing.

Article 11. Entry of Partners

The entry of a partner is permitted by unanimous decision of the partners upon written request of the candidate partner.

Article 12. Withdrawal of Partners

The withdrawal of partners is made by written declaration to the other partners.

The partners, acting jointly and by unanimous decision, may remove a partner for good cause. Indicatively, but not limited to, a good cause is considered the violation of the company's objectives and the terms of the Articles of Association, of the company's principles, after a prior written summons to provide explanations. A good cause for deletion is the long-term non-participation of a partner in the activities of the company and, in particular, the absence of the partner from 3 partners' meetings without reasonable cause and without justification.

The partner to be deleted does not participate in the decision on deletion.

In the event of death, withdrawal of a partner, his or her being placed under legal representation or bankruptcy of a partner, the company is not dissolved and continues among the remaining partners.

A partner who withdraws or is deleted is entitled to receive from the Company only the amount of his/her initial contribution with a corresponding reduction of the corporate capital, provided that it has not been used up due to losses or expenses.

Article 13. Rights and Obligations of Partners

1. The partners are entitled to participate equally in all activities/ actions of the Company.
2. The partners are obliged to provide their services to the Company and to comply with the terms of the Articles of Association.

Article 14. Company Relations with Partners

1. Members of the company may be employees of the company, in a dependent or independent service relationship, be paid for the work or service provided and have the rights and obligations arising from labor legislation, under the following terms and conditions:
 - a. The selection and approval of the contract or partnership and of the person to be selected requires a decision of the General Assembly, while the person or persons nominated will not participate in the vote to be taken.
 - b. The decision is taken by a majority of its members and rejects or accepts a member's request to work with the Company.
 - c. The General Assembly shall exercise control and supervision over the work or task to be delivered by the person, without the person's participation in the specific work of the General Assembly.
 - d. The contract should not violate the affectio societatis (intention of partnership) of the Company, i.e. the powers and obligations of the partner-member should not be identical to the obligations undertaken by the latter under this partnership contract.
 - e. The work to be provided under the contract of employment or project or independent service provision pursuant to par. 1 of this Article shall not be included in the corporate contribution to be contributed and shall not be contrary to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the company.

Any person (partner or third party) may provide voluntary work to the company only if they are registered in the relevant register of volunteers kept by the company and their voluntary activity does not generate direct income for the company.

The provision of services to serve the purposes of the company by its members, who are not in an employment relationship with the company, is done pursuant to articles 713 et seq. of the Civil Code, as applicable to the unpaid mandate subject to the present and provided that no other provision of law is violated.

Article 15. Keeping company books

The Company keeps documents and books in accordance with the applicable provisions.

Article 16. Complaint against the company

The complaint against the Company by a partner does not result in its dissolution but is considered as a request by the partner for withdrawal according to the provisions of Article 12 hereof.

Article 17. Company dissolution and liquidation

1. The Company shall be dissolved in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 of the Articles of Association or following a unanimous decision of the partners and shall be liquidated. All the partners are appointed as liquidators for the liquidation of the company's assets after the dissolution.

2. During the liquidation, an inventory of the company's assets is taken, any claims of the company are collected, and all its obligations are paid. Any remaining assets shall be donated to a charitable foundation or other non-profit organization in Greece or abroad active in similar fields.

Article 18. Settlement of other issues - Mediation clause

Any disagreement or dispute between partners, both during the operation of the company and during the liquidation stage, shall be resolved by mediation in accordance with L. 3898/2010, conducted by an accredited mediator of the relevant public panel held by the competent Service of the Ministry of Justice, Transparency and Human Rights.

In witness whereof, the present Articles of Association were drawn up in two (2) identical originals, in order for one to be filed with the competent GEMI department.
